

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT

No. 18-1228

ATLANTIC COAST PIPELINE LLC,

Plaintiff – Appellee,

v.

27.85 ACRES, MORE OR LESS, IN BATH COUNTY, VIRGINIA, Located on parcel identification no. 36-1, identified as that certain 492 acres more particularly described in deed book 197, page 300; less other And except a certain tract containing 212.993 acres, more or less, as shown on plat filed in plat cabinet1, slide 180 other located on parcel identification no. 37-5, identified as that certain 484.333 acres more particularly described in deed book 32, page 37 other and being all that certain 246.02 acres more particularly described in deed book 33, page 478 other less and except a certain tract containing 1 acre, of a 2.08 acre tract described in deed book 34, page 47 other and owned by the Wilderness LLC; THE WILDERNESS LLC,

Defendants – Appellants.

ORDER

Having carefully considered the various written submissions of the parties and the oral argument of yesterday afternoon, the Court hereby vacates the injunction entered by the district court on March 1, 2018, insofar as it relates to Defendants – Appellants. Due to material changes in the underlying circumstances, as reflected in the various submissions and discussed further at oral argument, we hereby remand to the district court for such other and further proceedings as may be appropriate.

Entered at the direction of Judge King, with the concurrence of Chief Judge Gregory and Judge Traxler.

For the Court:

/s/ Patricia S. Connor, Clerk